

Jordan “George” Lee Becker, 32 years old, of Sykeston, North Dakota, passed away on January 14, 2024, in his childhood home, surrounded by his family and friends he held near and dear.

Jordan was born October 23, 1991, to Dan and Kim (Bauman) Becker in Jamestown, ND. He was born at 5lbs 12 oz. and only 20 inches long. He grew up to tower over most, at 6 feet and 3 inches, but his heart was the biggest part of him, which we will all greatly miss.

Jordan grew up outside of Carrington and attended Carrington Public School, graduating in 2010. While in school he was active in Boy Scouts in his younger years and also took part in FFA.

Jordan was kind, hardworking, caring, stubborn, wild, and always someone willing to have a good time. He was a man of many jokes and greatly enjoyed giving grief to his family and friends. Some of our fondest memories are ones at his expense, but he knew how to dish it out just as much as he could take it. Jordan had a love for helping others. If you needed it, he was always there to offer a hand, a tool, time, or a “good talk”. Like father like son. His work ethic was strong and getting him to sit down to take a moment was impossible. During school and after graduating he worked for the family business, Becker Construction alongside his father and brother.

In Jordan’s spare time, you could often find him spending weekends and as much time as possible near water. Many Fourth of July and weekends were spent at the family cabin on Lake Juanita with family and friends gathered around a bonfire. Jordan enjoyed tubing, jet skiing, boating, and all the lake fun. In the summer months, you could also find him at the nearest demolition derby, mud run, or autocross race. He never picked one specific thing to spend his time on, but was willing to try whatever was tabled, as long as there was good company and good food. Jordan enjoyed participating in the local pool league, hunting, and fishing if he ever took the time. He could often be found playing cards and domino games, watching football, and smoking all sorts of things on his smoker. Jordan loved to travel and enjoyed taking vacations to visit family. He tried to spend as much time as he could in his proudest title “Uncle George”. Many trips were planned “being a kid again,” with his sister and two nieces MaKaya and Casely.

Jordan is survived by his parents, Dan and Kim (Bauman) Becker (Carrington), his sister, Sarah Becker and two nieces, MaKaya and Casely (Carrington), his brother, Nicholas Becker (Carrington), his grandparents, Fred and Jeanine Bauman (Madison, SD), and grandma, Joanne Becker (Carrington); many aunts, uncles and cousins of extended families.

Jordan is preceded in death by his grandpa, Lloyd Becker, and great-grandpa Ken Granum.

Celebrating

THE LIFE OF

Jordan Lee Becker

OCTOBER 23, 1991 – JANUARY 14, 2024

He Is Gone

*You can shed tears that he is gone,
Or you can smile because he lived,
You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back,
Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left.*

*Your heart can be empty because you can't see him
Or you can be full of the love that you shared,
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.*

*You can remember him and only that he is gone
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on,
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back,
Or you can do what he would want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.*
