He worked at a lumber mill in Washington State for a time. Fred did custom combining for Ron Weber. He later moved back to the area. Fred then farmed for Kevin Lura, he really enjoyed his time with Kevin. Fred liked to travel, snowmobile, and to collect baseball cards. He loved to have one-on-one visits. Fred was a free-spirit, you never knew where he'd turn up.

Fred is survived by his brother, Leonard (Lois) Jacobson; his sister, Martha Ambers; his sister-in-law, Betty Jacobson; a daughter, Missy (Don) Oney; 3 grandchildren; 6 great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his two brothers, Ernest (Luella) Kriedeman and Carl Jacobson; and brother-in-law, Larry Ambers.

THE LIFE OF

Fred Jacobson

JUNE 16, 1940 – APRIL 22, 2024

You Never Said Goodbye

You never said I'm leaving
You never said goodbye.

You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.

A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly,
In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place,
That no one could ever fill.

It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
For part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.
