She had a love for traveling and flying and found the perfect fit working at the Norfolk Regional Airport in Nebraska before retirement.

Her hobbies included traveling, fishing, horseback riding, and painting. She was always up for an adventure and enjoyed playing jokes on her family and friends.

Gayle will be greatly missed by her daughter, Stacie (Peterson) Bentz of Mandan, ND; grandchildren, Morgan Peterson of Bismarck, ND, Aidan and Brendan Dailey both of Mandan, ND; her aunts, Patricia McCleery and Dora Montgomery both of Carrington, ND; her best friend, Mary Buhl of Mitchell, SD, and many great friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Robert and Betty Anderson.

A special thanks to all the staff at Golden Acres Manor of Carrington for the amazing care they provided her (Snickel Fritz) over the years.

THE LIFE OF

Gayle Kohles

MAY 28, 1950 – AUGUST 18, 2024

Always There

When you remember me,
Please do not weep.
My body may not be there.
It has chosen to sleep.
I'm not that far away.
My soul lives on,
Looking down, watching over
You and everyone.
And when you feel sad
And life seems so blue,
Just remember
That my spirit has its arms around you.
And on those special days,
Times that you wish I could see,
That cool breeze flowing past you...
Well, that will be me,
So don't be sad.
Have no fear.
God has taken me under his wing,
But I'll always be near.
I still watch you
Every minute, every day.
My love and soul are with you,
And that's where they will stay.
